

Standard Precaution Quiz

Infection Control Self Study Inservice Credit

Employee Name _____ Employee Signature _____

Date _____

Circle the best choice or fill in the answer, then check your answers with your supervisor.

- Standard Precautions protect:
 - Healthcare workers
 - Visitors
 - Clients
 - All of the Above
- The chain of infection starts with:
 - An infectious agent
 - A susceptible person
 - A reservoir
 - A mode of transportation
- A client is on contact precautions for MRSA, That personal protective equipment will you need to care for this client?
 - Gloves
 - Gown and gloves
 - Gown, gloves and goggles
 - Gown, gloves, and a fit tested respirator
- A client with the flu should be placed on:
 - Standard precautions
 - Droplet precautions
 - Contact precautions
 - Airborne precautions
- Standard Precaution guidelines require you to wear gloves instead of washing your hands:
 - TRUE
 - FALSE
- Most health care workers do not was their hands as often as they should:
 - TRUE
 - FALSE
- Following standard precautions is mandatory under federal law:
 - TRUE
 - FALSE
- It's OK to share equipment between two clients on contact precautions – even if they have different infections:
 - TRUE
 - FALSE
- Body fluids such as urine and vomit should be disposed of in a sink or tub:
 - TRUE
 - FALSE
- The most common way infections spread in the healthcare field is by the _____ of the healthcare worker.